SEC. 85. That no person shall carry on the business or act in the capacity of a scavenger or night scavenger, and as such remove any ashes, garbage, or house refuse, or clean out or remove the contents of any sink, cesspool, or privy vault without being first licensed for that purpose by this board, and no scavenger shall use or permit to be used in conducting his business as scavenger any wagon or cart which shall not be covered in such a manner as to prevent the escape of ashes or any other materials or substances therefrom and which shall not have been first approved by this board and any person or persons violating this section shall be liable to have his or their license revoked and forfeited and pay a penalty of $25.

SEC. 86. That no cart or other vehicle for carrying any offal, swill, garbage or rubbish, or the contents of any privy vault, cesspool, or other receptacle for filth, or having upon it or in anything upon such cart or vehicle, any manure or other nauseous or offensive substance, shall, without necessity therefor, stand, or remain, nor shall a needless number gather before or near any building, place of business, or other premises where any person may be; nor shall the person using said cart or vehicle occupy an unreasonable length of time in loading or unloading or in passing along any street or through any inhabited place or ground; nor shall any such cart or vehicle nor the driver thereof, or anything thereto appertaining, be (or by any person having the right to control the same be allowed to be) in a condition needlessly filthy or offensive; and when not in use all such carts and vehicles and all implements used in connection therewith shall be stored and kept in some place where no needless offense shall be given to any inhabitant of this town.

SEC. 87. That all carts and vehicles in the last section mentioned, and boxes, tools, and receptacles thereon, in which any substance in said section referred to may be or be carried, shall be strong and tight, and the sides shall be so high above the load or contents that no part of such contents or load shall fall, leak, or spill therefrom; and that when in the opinion of this board, it is necessary to prevent the contents of such carts or vehicles, tubs or boxes or receptacles from being offensive, each of such carts, tubs or boxes, and receptacles shall be adequately and tightly covered, as the orders and regulations of this board may provide and direct.

Any person or persons or corporations who shall fail to comply with or violate any of the provisions of sections 86 or 87 of this code shall forfeit and pay a penalty of $10.

SEC. 88. That any owner, agent, tenant, lessee, or occupant of any lot, ground, building, house, or stable in this town, on notice from this board, shall forthwith remove from said lot, ground, building, house, or stable any rubbish, garbage, offal, or any offensive matter or thing; and any person on notice from this board shall abate any nuisance existing on any premises of which he may be the lessee, owner, agent, tenant, or occupant.

If any person shall refuse or neglect to remove any foul or obnoxious or hurtful matter or thing, or if any person shall refuse or neglect to abate any nuisance, then this board may proceed to remove said nuisance, source of foulness or cause of sickness, and to recover by action of debt against such person the expense incurred by said board by such removal.

Any person offending or violating the provisions of this section, or any of them, shall forfeit and pay a penalty of $10.

Spitting—Prohibited in Public Places. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 26, 1915.)

SEC. 67. No person shall spit, expectorate, or deposit any sputum, saliva, mucus, or any form of sputum, saliva, or mucus upon the floor or upon any part of the interior, steps, or platform of any street railway car or other public conveyance, or upon the floors, staircases, or any part of the interior of any public building or upon the steps giving access thereto from the exterior, or upon the sidewalk or crosswalks of any street, alley, lane, or public place in this town. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of section 67 shall pay a fine of $10.
